- 12. Probation-
- (1) A person appointed to any post or any Service shall remain on probation for a period of two years, if recruited by direct appointment and for a period of one year, if appointed otherwise :
- Provided that .-
- (a) any period, after such appointment, spent on deputation on a corresponding or a higher post shall count towards the period of probation;
- (b) in the case of any appointment by transfer, any period of work on a post of equivalent or higher rank, prior to appointment to the post in a Service may at the discretion of the Appointing Authority, be allowed to count towards the period spent on probation;

- (c) any period of officiating appointment to the post in a Service shall be reckoned as period spent on probation; and
 - (d) any kind of leave not exceeding six months during or at the end of the period of probation, shall be counted towards the period of probation.
- (2) If, in the opinion of the Appointing Authority, the work and conduct of a person during the period of probation is not satisfactory or if he has failed to pass the departmental examination, if any, prescribed under these regulations, within a period not exceeding two and a half years from the date of appointment, it may-
- (a) if such a person is recruited by direct appointment, dispense with his service, or revert him to a post on which he held lien prior to his appointment to a Service by direct appointment; and
 - (b) if such person is appointed otherwise the Appointing Authority may deal with him in such other manner as the terms and conditions of the previous appointment permit.
- (3) On the completion of the period of probation of a person, the Appointing Authority may:-
- (a) if his work and conduct has, in its opinion, been satisfactory :-
 - (i) confirm such person, from the date of his appointment or from the date he completes his period of probation satisfactorily, if he is not already confirmed; or
 - (ii) declare that he has completed his probation satisfactorily, if he is already confirmed, or
 - (b) if his work or conduct has not been, in its opinion, satisfactory or if he has failed to pass the departmental examination, if any, specified in these regulations-
 - i) dispense with his service, if appointed by direct appointment, or, if appointed otherwise, revert him to his former post, or deal with him in such other manner as the terms and conditions of his previous appointment may permit; or
 - ii) extend his period of probation and thereafter otherwise, revert him to his former post, or deal with him in such other manner as the terms and conditions of his previous appointment may permit; or
 - iii) extend his period of probation and thereafter pass such orders as it could have passed on the expiry of the period of probation as specified in such regulation (1);

Provided that the total period of probation including extension, if any, shall not exceed three years.

- 13. Seniority- The seniority interse of the members of a Service appointed to posts in each cadre of a Service shall be determined by the length of continuous service on such post in that cadre of the Service:

Provided that in the case of members appointed by direct appointment who join within the period specified in the order of appointment or within such period as may be extended from time to time by the Appointing Authority, the seniority based on the order of merit determined and recommended by the Selection Committee, shall not be disturbed:

Provided further that in the case of two members appointed on the same date, their seniority shall be determined as follows:-

- (a) a member appointed by direct recruitment shall be senior to a member appointed otherwise;
- (b) a member appointed by promotion shall be senior to a member appointed by transfer;

- (c) in the case of members appointed by promotion or transfer, seniority shall be determined according to the seniority of such members in the appointments from which they were promoted or transferred; and
- (d) in the case of members appointed by transfer from different cadres, their seniority shall be determined according to pay preference being given to a member who was drawing a higher rate of pay in his previous appointment, and if the rates of pay drawn are also the same, then by their length of service in those appointments and if the length of such service is also the same an older member shall be senior to a younger member.

EXPLANATION:- The seniority of members of a Service appointed on purely provisional basis shall be determined as and when they are appointed on regular basis keeping in view the date of such regular appointment.

14. Discipline, Punishment and Appeals-

- (1) in the matter of discipline, punishment and appeals, employees shall be governed by the Punjab Urban Planning and Development Authority (Punishment and Appeal) Regulations, 1997 as amended from time to time.
- (2) The authorities empowered to impose penalties specified in regulation 5 of the Punjab Urban Planning and Development Authority (Punishment and Appeal) Regulations, 1997 and the appellate authorities thereunder in respect of the employees shall be such as specified in Clause (e) of regulation 12 of the said regulations.

15. Liability for vaccination and revaccination- Every member of a Service shall get himself vaccinated or re-vaccinated when the Appointing Authority so directs by a special or general order.

16. Oath of allegiance-

- (1) Every employee of the Authority unless he has already done so, shall be required to make and subscribe before the Appointing Authority or some other person nominated by the Appointing Authority, an oath of allegiance to India and to the Constitution of India as by law established in the form set out for the purpose in Schedule IV.

17. Departmental Examination-

- (1) Employees appointed to a Service, unless they have already done so, may pass within a period of two and half years from the date of their appointment such departmental examination as may be prescribed by the Authority from time to time.

Provided that Authority may for any sufficient cause, extend the period within which any member is required to pass the departmental examination.

- (2) If an employee fails to pass the departmental examination within the specified period or within the extended period, if any, he shall not earn his future grade increments till such time he passes the departmental examination when the increments shall be released retrospectively.

Provided that he shall not be entitled to get any arrears of the released grade increments for the period during which he could not pass the departmental examination.

18. Knowledge of Punjabi language- No person shall be appointed to any post in any Service of the Authority by direct appointment unless he possesses knowledge of Punjabi language of Matriculation standard or its equivalent qualification.

Provided that where a person is appointed on compassionate grounds on priority basis under the instructions issued in this behalf by the Authority the person so appointed if not possessing knowledge of Punjabi language of Matriculation standard or equivalent qualification at the time of his appointment shall have to acquire knowledge of Punjabi language of Matriculation standard or shall have to qualify a test conducted by the Language Wing of the Department of Education of Government of Punjab within six months from the date of his appointment.

Provided further that where educational qualifications for a post in any Service is lower than Matriculation the knowledge of Punjabi language shall be lowered accordingly.

19. Debarring for consideration for promotion of employee who refuses to accept promotion–

In the event of refusal to accept promotion by a member of a Service he shall be debarred by the Appointing Authority from consideration for promotion for all the consecutive chances which may occur in future within a period of two years from the date of such refusal to accept promotion.

Provided that in a case where the Appointing Authority is satisfied that a member of a Service has refused to accept promotion under the circumstances beyond his control, it may exempt such a member for reasons to be recorded in writing, from the operation of this regulation.

20. Resignation–

- (1) An employee who is on probation shall not leave service under the Authority without giving at least one month's notice in writing of his intentions to do so or pay in lieu thereof an amount equivalent to his one month's pay.
- (2) An employee who has completed his probation period satisfactorily shall not leave service under the Authority without giving at least three months notice in writing of his intention to do so or pay in lieu thereof an amount equivalent to his three months pay.
- (3) The Appointing Authority may at its discretion dispense with the requirement of sub-regulation (1) or sub-regulation (2) as the case may be, in appropriate cases.
- (4) The resignation submitted by an employee to leave service may be accepted by the Appointing Authority with immediate effect or at any time before the expiry of the period of the notice and in such a case the employee shall be paid for the period actually spent by him on duty in the service.
- (5) The Appointing Authority may refuse to accept the resignation if any case of defecation or disciplinary proceedings is pending against the employee, unless the Appointing Authority is satisfied that acceptance of resignation in such a case will not effect adversely the interest of the Authority in any manner.
- (6) An employee leaving the service without complying with the provisions of sub-regulation (1) or sub-regulations (2) without giving proper notice and without prior sanction of the Appointing Authority shall be liable to such legal, disciplinary or any other action as may be considered necessary by the Appointing Authority including forfeiture of service.

21. Superannuation and voluntary retirement–

- (1) Every Class IV employee shall retire when he attains the age of sixty years.
- (2) Every employee other than Class IV employee shall retire when he attains the age of fifty eight years.
- (3) The power to re-employ an employee who has attained the age of superannuation shall be exercised only by the Authority.
- (4) Notwithstanding anything contained in this regulation, the Appointing Authority or the Authority shall, if it is of the opinion that it is in public interest to do so, have the absolute right to retire any employee by giving prior notice of not less than three months in writing or three months pay and allowances in lieu of such notice after he has attained the age of fifty years or has completed twenty five years service.

Provided that such retirement order in respect of Class I and Class II employee shall be passed by the Appointing Authority with the prior approval of the Chairman.

- (5)
 - (i) At any time after an employee has completed twenty years of service, he may, by giving notice of not less than three months in writing to the Appointing Authority, retire from service.
 - (ii) The notice of voluntary retirement given under clause (i) shall require acceptance by the appointing Authority

- iii) Where the Appointing Authority does not refuse to grant the permission for retirement before the expiry of the period specified in the said notice, the retirement shall become effective from the date of expiry of the said period.
- (iv) The employee, who has opted to retire under this sub-regulation, and has given the necessary notice to that effect to the Appointing Authority, shall be barred from withdrawing his notice unless the withdrawal is made before the intended date of his retirement and has the specific approval of the Appointing Authority.

Provided that no withdrawal shall be again allowed if the employee has been allowed once withdrawal of voluntary retirement.

Note :- (1) A notice of less than three months may also be accepted by the Appointing Authority in deserving cases :

Provided that in the case of Class I & II employees concurrence of the Chairman shall be required.

Note :- (2) If an employee retires under sub-regulation (4) or sub-regulation (5) while he is on leave not due without returning to duty, the retirement shall take effect from the date of commencement of the leave not due and the leave salary paid in respect of such leave shall be recovered as provided in rule 8.119 of the Punjab Civil Service Rules, Volume I, Part I.

Note :- (3) In computing the notice period of three months referred to in sub-regulations (4) and (5), the date of service of the notice and the date of its expiry shall be excluded.
